

Wellness With Sound & Voice SATURDAY

WORKSHOP with Darlene Koldenhoven

October 6, 2012 • 1:30-4:30 p.m.

TSA Auditorium

1926 N. Main St. , Wheaton, IL 60187

$39 advance • $49 door

630-668-1571 Ext. 315

www.theosophical.org

info@theosophical.org

Harmonize Your Mind, Body, Spirit & Life

Improve your health, eliminate stress and stay well by activating the healing power of music and your voice in Darlene's inspiring, educational and fun "adventure" with sonic energy. Experience sound healing methods from ancient to modern medicine. No singing necessary. Emerge with a freer, activated, more confident voice; a stronger ear-voice-body connection; enhanced breathing; along with restored, enriched, and balanced life energy. More info on the workshop at www.wellnessvoiceworkshop.com.

Additional Credentials

Darlene has a Grammy Award & 3 Nominations, a Masters Degree in Voice and Bachelors in Music Education. She is a Vocalist, Sound Healer, Composer, Songwriter, Speaker, Credentialed Educator, & Author of Tune Your Voice: Singing and Your Mind's Musical Ear (Book w/7CDs) endorsed by Juilliard, Berklee, NYU. Darlene has presented workshops nationwide on the voice and vibrational healing at centers such as the Edgar Cayce Center, Theosophical Society in America, inspired religious centers and more, she has been asked to be an "expert in the field" speaker at many conferences, for example, The Global Sound Conference has written magazine articles on the subject for New Age & New Sounds and Evolve, both in the United States and Europe. For more information, music, and bookings, please visit www.darlenekoldenhoven.com

Music That Transforms

Concert & Commentary

The Theosophical Society in America presents:

Grammy Winner

Darlene Koldenhoven

October 4, 2012 • 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Henry S. Olcott Library, 1926 N. Main. St. , Wheaton, IL 60187

Tickets $15members $18non 630-668-1571 Ext. 315

info@theosophical.org

The Theosophical Society in America • 1926 N. Main. St. , Wheaton, IL 60187
www.theosophical.org

Talent

Darlene Koldenhoven

Darlene Koldenhoven is an American Soprano with a Grammy Award and 3 Nominations, known globally as the featured soloist in the PBS-TV Special & DVD, "Yanni, Live at the Acropolis" seen by over 1.5 billion people worldwide. Ms. Koldenhoven has two #1 classical crossover albums voted Best Vocal Album "Infinite Voice" and Best Holiday Album "Heavenly Peace" in 2007 by Broadcasters Worldwide. Her latest album, "Solitary Treasures," debuted #5 on the radio charts in February 2012. "Lucid See," Darlene's sole piano instrumental composition from "Solitary Treasures," was Nominated Best New Age Song 2011 by the Independent Music Awards. The American Prize Awards recognized Darlene's classical vocal performance on her "Angel on Ivories" album as a 2012 Finalist in Best Art Song Vocalist-Professional Division. Darlene's multi-faceted career as vocalist, pianist, songwriter, composer, arranger, producer, keyboardist, and actress (Darlene is the tambourine-waving choir nun and real life music director and production vocal coach for both "Sister Act" films with Whoopi Goldberg), includes voice teacher, music therapist and author of a comprehensive music education/vocal book with 7 CDs titled "Tune Your Voice: Singing and Your Mind's Musical Ear," endorsed by faculty from Juilliard, NYU, Berklee, to American Idol. Darlene tours nationwide in concert and with her workshops on "Wellness With Sound and Voice" and "Everyone Can Sing." For more information, music, and bookings, please visit www.darlenekoldenhoven.com.

Darlene's Classical Crossover Concert is a moving and entertaining voyage into sound; blending classical, new age, melodic pop, world and spiritual music woven with the fascinating stories behind it all and spun together with her golden, multi-octave voice. Singing & playing piano from the albums she wrote and produced, Darlene's musical canvas ranges from a piano solo to the orchestral flourish as her voice floats like an angel between Celtic-American folk, heartfelt power ballads, demanding operatic coloratura; all the while commanding several languages and vocalise along the way – a fully engaging masterpiece of musicianship and performance while joyfully lifting your spirit and deeply touching your soul.

Program

Music That Transforms

Sous le dome épais Lakmé - Léo Delibes

– arranged by Darlene Koldenhoven & Larry Steelman

Infinite Voice – Darlene Koldenhoven

Essence of Your Peace – Darlene Koldenhoven

The Who I am in Me – Darlene Koldenhoven & Larry Steelman

Lucid See – Darlene Koldenhoven

Pie Jesu Requiem – Andrew Lloyd Webber arranged by Alex Wurman

In Trutina Carmina Burana – Carl Orff

Clair de lune - Claude Debussy

Pavane – Gabriel Faure & Maurice Ravel

– arranged by Brad Cole & Darlene Koldenhoven

In God's Time – Darlene Koldenhoven

Notturmo Op.54 N°4 Lyric Pieces – Edvard Grieg

Emmanuel – Michel Colombier

Release – Darlene Koldenhoven

Meditation Thaïs – Jules Massenet

Gabriel's Oboe – Nella Fantasia The Mission – Ennio Morricone

– arranged by Darlene Koldenhoven & Larry Steelman

Nessun Dorma Turandot – Giacomo Puccini

Darlene's Music is available at event, online, & darlenekoldenhoven.com

